About this course

An introductory teaching qualification for new educators and people already delivering training. Explore teaching responsibilities, inclusive learning and assessment.

Who can join and what you arrange

Sunshine policy: age 19+ and at least three years of subject experience, with suitable communication and study skills. No previous teaching qualification or teaching job is needed. The three-year rule is Sunshine's admission policy.

Assessment and practical requirements

Build a written and practical portfolio. You choose the subject and arrange a one-hour micro-teach and suitable participants. Normally recorded; live assessment can be requested in advance. Follow assessor guidance on planning, permissions and evidence.

Course period and portal access

12 months from purchase to complete the course. Lifetime portal access is separate from the course-completion period. Apply for an extension if you need longer.

Indicative completion: 3 weeks to 6 months; this depends on study time and assessment progress and is not guaranteed.

Tutor support

Email and WhatsApp: 9:30am-5:30pm, Monday-Friday, UK time. Replies within 1 working day; assignment feedback within 7 working days. Portal details within 2 working days after enrolment and eligibility checks.

Your next step

Explore CET or DiT for further teaching practice, or CAVA for vocational assessment, subject to entry and practical requirements. AET does not grant qualified teacher status.
